The Department of Financial Services (“Department”) is seeking candidates who are highly experienced professionals to work in various business units to investigate criminal and fraudulent activities in our regulated financial institutions in support of the Department’s efforts to enforce the Banking, Insurance and Financial Services laws. This may involve travel and undercover operations for extended periods and irregular hours, including weekends. The duties of this position include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Perform a wide variety of enforcement, regulatory and licensing investigative activities, pursuant to the Banking, Insurance and Financial Services Laws and the Department’s regulatory obligations, in order to gather information and report facts;
- Review assigned cases or complaints from the public;
- Plan the scope and method of an investigation based on office policy, accessibility of information and importance of a case;
- Meet with and interview witnesses, complainants, proprietors, prospective licensees and others to obtain information relating to an investigation and take statements from individuals in an appropriate format, taking care to include a full description of the facts needed to support an investigation;
- Develop leads and informants and conduct surveillance and engage in undercover work often using a camera, recording device, or other equipment to document findings;
- Obtain and safeguard evidence according to agency procedures and legal requirements;
- Confer with law enforcement and other entities to convey and obtain information relevant to an investigation and to develop and maintain rapport to ensure mutual cooperation in the conduct of an investigation;

- Participate in joint agency operations targeting patterns of non-compliance or violations by regulated entities;
- Prepare factual written reports of information gathered during an investigation and discuss investigative findings and recommendations with supervisors and program specialists;
- Recommend an appropriate course of action consistent with findings and agency policy and practices;
- Assist with witness preparation and fact and evidence development during trials;
- Testify at administrative proceedings or in court regarding the details of investigations and related conclusions; and
- Other appropriate and occupationally related duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

This will be an exempt appointment. The incumbent will be designated as a peace officer and must be a United States citizen, reside in New York State and maintain New York State residency during employment, as well as meet all other requirements related to peace officer status. The preferred candidate will have a minimum of eight years of law enforcement experience or in the conduct of field investigations preliminary to criminal litigation or to criminal prosecution, with at least five years experience in conducting financial fraud investigations; an understanding of law enforcement agencies throughout the country; the ability to analyze criminal history reports; the ability to conduct research, investigative interviews and prepare written memoranda detailing the results; the ability to analyze financial documents and filings, including mortgage records; and possess excellent presentation, organization, writing, telephone and computer skills, including the ability to work with spreadsheets.

To Apply: Interested qualified candidates must submit a resume and letter of interest no later than November 14, 2017 to the email address listed below. Please include (Box INV2) in the subject line of your email to ensure receipt of your application. Email submissions are preferred.
