Appointment to this position is pending Division of Budget approval to fill.

Under the provisions of the Paid Family Leave (PFL) program, the Department of Financial Services (DFS) has been charged with implementing a data warehouse that will not only be used by DFS, but also the Workers Compensation Board, the Department of Health and other agencies. DFS is seeking to fill the position of Data Warehouse/Business Intelligence Engineer in our Information Technology Unit to be responsible for designing and implementing staging, operational data stores (ODS) and data warehouse environments using data from multiple sources through data normalization, de-normalization, flattening and enrichment for the development of the infrastructure of the new Paid Family Leave data warehouse. This includes playing an important and sensitive role in decision-making and policy-making activities.

The incumbent will advise policy makers on issues related to PFL implementation and provide expertise as to what data is needed to support policy decisions. The incumbent will be involved in confidential, high level discussions about acquisition, publication and security of data related to PFL. Other duties of this position include, but are not limited to:

- In consultation with other policymakers, developing complex data transformations using ETL and ETL approach for Business Intelligence (BI) Data Warehouse/Data Mart models.
- Performing Extracting, Transforming, Loading (ETL) design, development, testing, and deployment activities effectively and efficiently;
- Importing, exporting and moving data in different formats (such as, .csv, .xml and .xlsx) between a variety of systems (such as, Relational Databases, Customer Relationship Management (CRM) systems, 3rd party systems and Application Program Interfaces (APIs);
- Designing and implementing the architecture and infrastructure of enterprise systems;
- Maintaining thorough understanding of the environment to ensure adherence to standards and utilizing accepted practices for enterprise design;
- Reviewing current and proposed architectures to meet acceptable enterprise system practices;
- Providing technical advice and guidance for infrastructure improvements and deploying and maintaining systems in accordance with established guidelines;

- Implementing enterprise information security, procedures and protocols and participating in security risk reviews and remediation activities including producing written technical reports;
- Participating in the testing of applications, such as developing test plans, test conditions, and validation testing;
- Design, develop, and maintain logical/physical data models, entity relationship diagrams and a common data dictionary;

Skills Requirements:

- At least 5 years of experience with Data Warehouse ETL design, development and maintenance with successful implementation of Enterprise BI solutions;
- Experience in working with RDBMS mainly SQL Server 2008/2012 and Oracle 11g/12c;
- Strong technical experience in designing and implementing data-intensive Data Warehouse solutions;
- High proficiency writing SQL/ T-SQL;
- Strong Knowledge of logical and physical data modeling (relational, dimensional data modeling); and
- Experience with data visualization tools (e.g. PowerBI).

Appointment method:

This is an appointment to a position in the exempt jurisdictional class. As such, the incumbent of this position would serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.
