

NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES

One State Street, New York, NY 10004

An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer

Announcement of Intention to Fill a Unpaid Student Intern Vacancy

UNPAID STUDENT INTERN

Location: Department of Financial Services
1 State Street Plaza
New York, NY 10004

Business Unit: Various

Job description:

The New York State Department of Financial Services is seeking motivated law school students to serve on behalf of the people of the State of New York as Legal Interns. The Department is the primary state regulator charged with enforcing the financial services laws, promoting the safety and soundness of financial institutions, and protecting consumers from financial fraud and abuse.

Legal Interns will work with the legal divisions in fulfilling the agency's mission. These divisions include financial frauds and consumer protection, real estate finance, capital markets, banking and insurance. Interns will assist in investigating violations of New York Banking, Insurance, and Financial Services Laws. When violations are uncovered, interns will aid in bringing enforcement actions. Interns will also help provide legal guidance to sectors of the financial services industry and contribute to the process of developing rules, regulations, and legislation. Interns can expect to work in a dynamic office and make meaningful contributions, while gaining valuable research, writing, and investigative experience.

Students will work in the Department's downtown Manhattan office. Interns during the school year are expected to commit to a minimum of 10 hours per week and summer interns are expected to work full time for a minimum of 8 weeks.

Positions are uncompensated, but the Department will work with students who may be able to seek a stipend or academic credit through their school.

Minimum Qualification: Graduate Students should apply.

To Apply: Interested qualified candidates must submit a resume and letter of interest to the email address listed below. Please include Unpaid Student Intern in the subject line of your email to ensure receipt of your application. Email submissions are preferred.
