

NEW YORK STATE
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES
Continuing Education Program
Provider Applications

The purpose of the New York Continuing Education Program is to serve the interests of the Insurance buying public by assuring that licensees of the Department of Financial Services remain current in their knowledge and understanding of the insurance market place and related laws and regulations. The Education Unit of the Licensing Services Bureau is tasked with approving competent providers and instructors to offer appropriate and meaningful courses that will enhance the education of licensees while fulfilling the requirements prescribed by insurance law.

For those parties interested in applying to become providers of continuing education and be approved in the New York State Department of Financial Services' Continuing Education Program, it is necessary to complete and forward the appropriate applications.

The following applications and documents may be downloaded, completed and returned to the Department at the following address:
