CORRECTION AND PREVENTION

20. Furthermore, within 7 days after the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank shall reset the interest rates of all HELOCs to correspond with the terms contained within the respective HELOC agreements and shall calculate the daily periodic rate for the HELOCs using the methodology contained in such HELOC agreements.

(b) Beginning on the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank shall take steps necessary, consistent with other provisions of this ORDER and sound banking practices, to correct and prevent the unsafe or unsound banking practices and/or violations of law or regulation that were identified in the 2009 Joint ROE and the Compliance Examination Report.

ORDER FOR RESTITUTION AND OTHER RELIEF

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT:

21. (a) The Bank shall immediately commence the restitution and other relief described below and complete such restitution within 90 days from the effective date of this ORDER.

(b) The Bank shall pay to each HELOC accountholder whose account was charged interest in excess of that provided for in the respective accountholder's HELOC agreement, the difference between the interest actually charged by the Bank and interest calculated in accordance with the terms of the HELOC agreements ("Interest Differential"). The Interest Differential shall be determined with respect to both (i) any excess interest charged where an "interest-rate floor," not disclosed in the respective borrower's HELOC agreement, was used to calculate interest and/or (ii) any excess interest charged on HELOC accounts where daily periodic rate(s) of $1/360^{\text{th}}$ of the annual percentage rate(s), which fraction was not set forth in the respective borrower's HELOC agreement, was used to calculate interest rather than $1/365^{\text{th}}$ of the annual percentage rate(s), which was the calculation method set forth in the HELOC agreements. The Interest Differential shall be calculated for the period commencing December 28, 2005 or the date upon which a particular HELOC account was opened, whichever is later, through the date the Bank shall reset the interest rates of all HELOCs to correspond with the terms contained within the respective HELOC agreements in accordance with this ORDER ("Restitution Period").

(c) Payment of the Interest Differential for the Restitution Period and resetting of interest rates of all HELOCs in accordance with this ORDER shall apply to existing Bank accountholders and former Bank accountholders of HELOC accounts that are now closed, charged off, or have been sold or otherwise transferred by the Bank. Payment of the Interest Differential for the Restitution Period may be reduced by any Interest Differential credited to the HELOC accounts during the Restitution Period and prior to the effective date of this ORDER.

(d) Except as provided below, payments of the Interest Differential for the Restitution Period shall be made by restitution checks to HELOC accountholders entitled to credits to their accounts. If on the effective date of this Order a HELOC accountholder is more than 30 days delinquent in making payment on the account, including any account that has been charged off, the amount of restitution to which the HELOC accountholder is entitled will be credited to the respective account. In the event that a credit, to any HELOC account that is more than 30 days delinquent, exceeds the balance owed on the HELOC account, the excess shall be paid by sending a restitution check to the affected HELOC accountholder. The Bank will report the reduced outstanding balances of HELOC accounts to the credit reporting agencies.

(e) It is agreed that the restitution calculations submitted by the Bank and approved by the Superintendent constitute compliance with the restitution calculations prescribed in this paragraph.

(f) Within 15 days from the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank shall submit to the Superintendent for review and non-objection the proposed text of the letters that will accompany the restitution checks to HELOC accountholders and the letters that will be sent to HELOC accountholders entitled to credits to their accounts. Such letters shall include satisfactory language explaining the reason the Bank is sending a restitution check or crediting the account together with an explanation of the manner in which the amount of restitution was calculated. The Superintendent shall notify the Bank in writing of any comments or non-objection. The Bank shall then address any comments of the Superintendent, making such changes as may be required to the proposed letters. The letters, incorporating any changes that may be required in response to comments by the Superintendent, shall be sent to all to HELOC accountholders entitled to receive a check for restitution and to HELOC accountholders entitled to credits to their accounts in accordance with this ORDER.

(g) Within 60 days from the effective date of this Order, and then every 30 days thereafter until completion of the restitution required by this ORDER, the Bank shall prepare and send to the Superintendent a detailed written report that explains the processes and procedures by which the Bank identified the HELOC accountholders and determined the applicable restitution amounts described above.

The report shall also include the following: (i) total number of HELOC accountholders, (ii) names, contact, and account information of the HELOC accountholders, (iii) amount of restitution to which each HELOC accountholder is entitled, (iv) number of HELOC accountholders who are to receive restitution, (v) total amount of restitution to be paid, (vi) the Bank's procedures to contact HELOC accountholders who do not receive restitution, and (vii) number of HELOC accountholders for whom the amount of restitution has yet to be determined.

(h) Within 7 days from the effective date of this Order, the Bank shall hire an independent auditor, acceptable to the Superintendent, who shall verify that the Bank accurately identified HELOC accountholders with respect to whom restitution checks are to be issued or HELOC accounts are to be credited as required by this ORDER. The independent auditor shall prepare a detailed written report of the processes and procedures by which the Bank determined and made the restitution. The report described shall be submitted to the Superintendent for review, comment, and non-objection within 60 days from the effective date of this Order, and then every 30 days thereafter until completion of the restitution required by this ORDER.

(i) Upon receipt of the Superintendent's written non-objection, the letters described above and the restitution checks shall be mailed in accordance with the Superintendent's comments, if any, but in no event later than 90 days from the effective date of this Order by the United States Postal Service first-class mail, address correction service requested. The envelopes shall contain no materials other than the approved letters, checks and any other materials reviewed and not objected to by the Superintendent. The Bank shall make reasonable attempts to locate HELOC accountholders, including a standard address search using the National Change of Address System, whose notification letter and/or restitution check is returned for any reason. The Bank shall promptly re-mail all returned letters and any restitution checks to corrected addresses, if any.

(j) For three (3) years from the effective date of this Order, the Bank shall retain all records pertaining to the restitution including, but not limited to: documentation of the processes and procedures used to determine the HELOC accountholders, the names, contact and account information of the HELOC accountholders, any mailing records, and documentation that the appropriate restitution was made.

(k) Any Interest Differential payment not credited to an accountholder or made by a restitution check shall be treated as abandoned property in accordance with applicable law.

ORDER TO PAY

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT, by reason of the alleged violations of law and/or regulations, and after taking into account the Resolution adopted by the Board, the appropriateness of the penalty with respect to the financial resources and good faith of the Bank, the gravity of the conduct by the Bank, the history of previous conduct by Bank, and such other matters as justice may require, pursuant to Section 44 of the Banking Law:

At least 3 of the members of such committee shall be Board members not employed in any capacity by the Bank other than as a trustee. The committee shall report monthly to the full Board, and a copy of the report and any discussion relating to the report or the ORDER shall be noted in the minutes of the Board meeting. The establishment of this committee shall not diminish the responsibility of liability of the entire Board to ensure compliance with the provisions of this ORDER.

PROGRESS REPORTS

25. Within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter following the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank shall furnish to the Superintendent written progress reports detailing the form and manner of any actions taken to secure compliance with this ORDER and the results thereof. Such reports may be discontinued when the corrections required by this ORDER have been accomplished, and the Superintendent has released, in writing, the Bank from making further reports.

SHAREHOLDERS

26. Following the effective date of this ORDER, the Bank shall send to its shareholder(s) or otherwise furnish a description of this ORDER in conjunction with the Bank's next written shareholder communication and also in conjunction with its notice or proxy statement preceding the Bank's next shareholder meeting following the effective date of this ORDER. The description shall fully describe the ORDER in all material respects. The description and any accompanying communication, statement, or notice shall be sent to the address specified below in Section 29, at least 20 days prior to dissemination to shareholders. Any changes requested to be made by the Superintendent shall be made prior to dissemination of the description, communication, notice, or statement.

SAVINGS CLAUSE

27. The provisions of this Order shall not bar, estop or otherwise prevent the FDIC or any other federal or state agency or department from taking any other action or seeking further remedies against the Bank or any of the Bank's current or former institution-affiliated parties or agents for violations of any laws, engaging in unsafe or unsound banking practices, or unfair or deceptive practices. The provisions of this Order apply to the Bank's successors and assigns.
