- Named insureds appear on the policy. Insureds are people entitled to benefits under the policy, such as a relative or dependent who is a resident of the home.
- 2. The policy number is important to have when filing a claim or making policy changes.
- 3. Inception date is the date the policy was originally issued
- 4. The current policy period, normally one year.
- Effective dates for changes or endorsements to your policy, will be noted here - like increasing your deductible or removing some specific coverage.
- Keep your agent/insurer contact information handy especially if you have to leave your home for an extended period like during an evacuation.

- 7. Named insured see #1.
- 8. Lists all properties covered by the policy. Location #1 is usually the primary residence; location #2 may be a vacation home.
- 9. More detail concerning the property location.
- Specific information about the construction of the property, year it was built, etc.
- 11. HO-O3 is the most common policy type. It covers for all risks of physical loss except those that are excluded. Homeowner policies do not include flood coverage, which must be purchased separately.
- 12. The deductible is the amount you must pay before your insurance company will pay on a loss. This is not same as the Hurricane/Windstorm Deductible see #22

- 13. Coverage on the physical structure of your home (not including value of land) and the amount you pay for this coverage.
- Coverage for garages, storage sheds and other structures on your property.
- 15. Covers the contents of your home based on actual cash value replacement value of the item minus depreciation. You may purchase additional coverage see item #24.
- 16. If your insurer finds a home uninhabitable due to a covered loss (like fire) your policy covers the difference between normal living expenses and any additional living expenses.
- The limit of liability when you are liable for a persons bodily injury or property damage.
- 18. If a person is injured at your home, your insurer will reimburse that person for medical expenses up to the stated limit.
- 19. Modifications and Credits will show any reductions or credits you are getting, in this case for an alarm system.

- 20. Lender Information for your Primary Mortgage, if any.
- 21. Lender Information for your Secondary Mortgage, if any.
- 22. The amount you must pay before the insurance company will pay if damage to your home is caused by a hurricane. Each company's hurricane trigger is different. Read your policy carefully.
- 23. This endorsement raises the amount of insurance coverage periodically in anticipation of inflation.
- 24. This changes the contents coverage of your policy from actual cash value to replacement cost see item #15.
- 25. The Flood Form is a separate page advising that your policy does not provide coverage for loss by flood.
- 26. New York resident policy owners or insureds 65 years or older may designate a third party to receive certain notices.
- 27. Additional coverage can be purchased for water backup and sump discharge. This coverage may not apply if the loss is caused by flood or another excluded peril.
