SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

A Licensed Mortgage Loan Originator Pursuant To Article XII-E of the New York Banking Law

-----X

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between Kevin Fitzpatrick ("Fitzpatrick") and the New York State Department of Financial Services (the "Department" and collectively with Fitzpatrick, the "Settling Parties") and evidences an agreement between the Settling Parties to resolve, without a hearing, the violations of Part 420 of the Superintendent's Regulations, upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

I.

RECITALS

1. Sections 44 and 598 of the New York Banking Law (the "Banking Law") provide, in part, that the Superintendent may, in a proceeding after notice and a hearing, require various persons to pay to the people of this State a penalty for a violation of the Banking Law and any regulation promulgated thereunder.

2. Section 420.21(g) of the Superintendent's Regulations provides that a fine may be imposed against a mortgage loan originator ("MLO") for any violation of the Banking Law, any regulation promulgated thereunder, any final or temporary order issued pursuant to Section 39 of the Banking Law, any condition imposed by the Superintendent in connection with the granting of any application or request or any written agreement entered into with the Superintendent.

3. On July 15, 2010, the Department granted Fitzpatrick a license, pursuant to Article 12-E of the Banking Law, to engage in regulated mortgage loan activities as a MLO.

4. Fitzpatrick was employed by Residential Home Funding Corp. ("RHF"), a New York licensed mortgage banker, until March 16, 2015.

5. The Department determined that Fitzpatrick, while sponsored by RHF, used the domain names priorityfunding.com during a period including June 2014, and eastislipmortgagelenders.com during a period including January 2015, to promote and solicit residential mortgage loans relating to properties in New York State. Samples of the domain names are annexed as Exhibit A and Exhibit B respectively.

6. The Department's review discovered that the domain name and website priorityfunding.com displayed Fitzpatrick's contact information with an email address associated with RHF, and was used to advertise to New York State borrowers without properly identifying Fitzpatrick as a MLO.

7. Furthermore, the domain name and website eastislipmortgagelenders.com stated specifically that Fitzpatrick is a mortgage broker and displayed Fitzpatrick's unique identifier with his contact information and was used to advertise to New York State borrowers.

8. As a result of the review, the Department determined that Fitzpatrick misrepresented his license status, or persuaded or induced New York State borrowers to apply for a mortgage loan under the belief that Fitzpatrick is duly licensed as a mortgage broker.

9. Accordingly, Fitzpatrick violated Part 420.20(a)(3) of the Superintendent's Regulations, which prohibits a MLO from misrepresenting his or her license status, or persuade or induce a borrower to apply for a mortgage loan under the belief that such MLO is duly licensed as a mortgage banker or mortgage broker pursuant to Article 12-D of the Banking Law.

10. Additionally, the Department determined that Fitzpatrick published, advertised or displayed his MLO license, in a manner which implied that he is registered with the Department to engage in mortgage loan originating activities as a mortgage broker.

11. Accordingly, Fitzpatrick violated Part 420.20(a)(4) of the Superintendent's Regulations, which states that no MLO shall publish, advertise or display his or her MLO license in any manner which implies that the MLO is licensed or registered with the Department to engage in mortgage loan originating activities as a mortgage banker or mortgage broker pursuant to Article 12-D of the Banking Law.
