The New York Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, more transparent and resilient financial system that benefits New Yorkers and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation, and operational excellence, DFS is responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health and stability of the financial entities we regulate; and driving economic growth through responsible innovation.

The Department of Financial Services is seeking candidates for the position of Consumer Representative 1 (DFS) in the Consumer Assistance Unit (CAU). Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Responds to written and phone inquiries and complaints regarding financial products;
- Functions as a second-level contact for complex inquiries from the public involving insurers, banks and other financial services institutions that cannot be resolved by call center staff;
- Informs consumers of appeal rights and complaint filing procedures, or refers them to other government agencies if appropriate;
- Codes new complaints and identifies and expedites Elder Abuse, Whistleblower, and hardship complaints for priority handling;
- Researches financial institution profile and history to determine whether it falls under DFS jurisdiction;
- Gathers information on previous cases or any of a similar nature and any other related information to pinpoint issues and/or decision points and completes routine investigative work;
- Appraises formal written consumer complaints and determines if there could be a violation of law, rule or regulation, or whether the consumer had been dealt with unfairly or deceptively;
- Assists with reviewing complaints from consumers or providers related to payment for out of network services or surprise bills and determines whether it is qualified for an Independent Dispute Resolution (IDR); reassigns IDR's when there is conflict of interest;
- Reviews complaints which are out of the DFS' jurisdiction and refers them to the appropriate regulatory entities;
- Prepares correspondence outlining resolution of complaints;
- Assists with reporting of consumer representative activity and IDR activity;
- Performs public outreach and educates consumers about financial products and services;
- Utilizes computer tracking system to keep records updated throughout the resolution process; and
- Other duties as assigned.
