The New York State Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, transparent, and resilient financial system that benefits individuals and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation and policy, and operational excellence, the Department and its employees are responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health of the entities we regulate; driving economic growth in New York through responsible innovation; and preserving the stability of the global financial system.

The Department of Financial Services is seeking candidates for the position of Senior Attorney in the Civil Investigations Unit. Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Proposes and develops new areas and subjects for investigations and develops investigations of identified persons, entities, and/or industries based upon whistleblowers, consumer complaints, and other information;
- Works on investigations of potential violations of the Insurance, Banking, Financial Services, and other state and federal laws, including requesting and reviewing document productions, negotiating discovery disputes, taking testimony, negotiating settlements with opposing counsel, and preparing for and conducting administrative hearings and litigation;
- Conducts legal research;
- Provides legal advice on matters regarding regulatory actions and develops legal approaches to accomplish various departmental objectives;
- Prepares pleadings, motion papers, and memoranda of law in connection with litigation and administrative proceedings;
- Analyzes and evaluates evidence, identifies law violations, and proposes monetary penalties, restitution, injunctive relief, and/or referral for prosecution;
- Assists in the review and amendment of Insurance, Banking and Financial Services law regulations, identifying law violations and emerging fraud trends;

- Assists in the review of proposed legislation and regulations and the implementation of passed legislation and adopted regulations;
- Works on drafting new legislation and regulations to assist the Department in fulfilling its mandate;
- Conducts special studies and research about issues and programs of interest to the Division and prepares reports and recommendations as assigned; and
- Works on initiatives of the Superintendent and Executive Deputy Superintendent.
