The New York Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, more transparent and resilient financial system that benefits New Yorkers and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation, and operational excellence, DFS is responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health and stability of the financial entities we regulate; and driving economic growth through responsible innovation.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES:

DFS is recruiting for Financial Services Examiners to help the Department protect consumers from financial harm; ensure the health of the financial entities we regulate; drive economic growth in New York through responsible innovation; and preserve the stability of the global financial system.

DUTIES:

As a Financial Services Examiner 1, you would monitor various types of financial services activities according to the statutory responsibilities of the agency; review and analyze different types of documents, transactions, operations and data for compliance with Financial Services laws, rules, and regulations; assist parties such as consumers and financial services institutions in resolving problems by interpreting program guidelines and regulations; prepare narrative reports and draft correspondence concerning the agency's regulatory and examination programs and standards for financial services entities; and personally handle routine regulatory activities.

TRAVEL REQUIREMENTS:

Extensive travel may be required, including overnight travel. Appointees must possess a valid license to operate a motor vehicle in New York State or otherwise demonstrate their ability to meet the transportation needs of the job in carrying out their responsibilities in any location to which travel is required, including locations not accessible by public transportation. Field work and travel expenses will be reimbursed on a fixed schedule.

Additional information regarding the duties will be discussed at the time of interview.

Ideal candidates will possess:

- Knowledge of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and Statements of Statutory Accounting Principles (SSAP).
- Ability to research and consistently apply state laws, Department regulations, National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) statutory accounting practices, and Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) regulations and practices.
- Knowledge of exam planning procedures, internal controls, sampling techniques, testing procedures, work paper preparation/documentation, reviewing procedures and report writing.
- Knowledge of financial analysis techniques and ratios.
- Ability to understand and evaluate the enterprise risk management functions of insurers.
- Ability to think critically and make decisions based on reasonable and timely analysis.
- Ability to understand and evaluate risks, as well as risk mitigation strategies and controls.
- Ability to see the big picture of the organization.
- Ability to multi-task and manage time effectively.
- Ability to work in and contribute to a team environment.
- Strong communication skills (both written and verbal).
- Ability to participate in presentations discussing examination findings.
- Ability to adapt to complex and rapidly changing expectations and environments.
- Proficiency in MS Excel, Word and Outlook.
- Outstanding analytical and research abilities.
- Ability to work with a variety of customers in the Financial Services sector.

Appointment method:

Provisional: There is currently no viable list for this title, therefore, this could be a provisional appointment. A provisional appointment is a non-permanent appointment pending examination. If you are appointed provisionally, you must take, pass and be reachable on the next scheduled Civil Service examination for this title before you can be permanently appointed. Failure to take, pass, and obtain a reachable score may result in revocation of the appointment.

55 b/c Appointment: Candidates must meet the eligibility requirements of the Governor's Program to Hire Individuals and Veterans with Disabilities as described in Civil Service Law § 55b/c. Information about this program can be found here: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/rp55/>

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Department of Financial Services is required to provide reasonable accommodation for known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified applicant with a disability if an accommodation would enable the applicant to perform the essential functions of the job. If the accommodation would constitute an undue hardship on the operations of the agency, the agency is not required to provide it.

Pursuant to Executive Order 161, no State entity, as defined by the Executive Order, is permitted to ask, or mandate, in any form, that an applicant for employment provide his or her current compensation, or any prior compensation history, until such time as the applicant is extended a conditional offer of employment with compensation. If such information has been requested from you before such time, please contact the Office of Employee Relations at (518) 473-3130 or via email at response@oer.ny.gov.
