The New York State Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, transparent, and resilient financial system that benefits individuals and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation and policy, and operational excellence, the Department and its employees are responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health of the entities we regulate; driving economic growth in New York through responsible innovation; and preserving the stability of the global financial system.

The Department of Financial Services is seeking candidates for the position of Deputy Superintendent for Life in the Life Bureau within the Insurance Division. Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Assists in implementation of the Superintendent's goals and objectives for the Life Insurance Bureau;
- Provides the Superintendent and Executive Deputy Superintendent with advice on issues related to the life insurance industry and regulatory process;
- Oversees and manages the daily activities and operations of the Life Insurance Bureau and its over one hundred full time employees, with responsibilities including oversight of the licensing, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) accreditation, and the examination and regulation of all life insurers and related entities;
- Makes recommendations that are relevant to the issues based on a thorough understanding of the short- and long-range impact;
- Assists with establishing policies, procedures, guidelines and appropriate supervisory actions relating to the Life Insurance Bureau;
- Presides at or participates in meetings and conferences with insurers, representatives of industry organizations, the NAIC, other governmental agencies and the public on behalf of DFS;
- Ensures that the programs of the Governor and the agency are effectively and expeditiously implemented;
- Acts for and in place of the Superintendent or Executive Deputy Superintendent as necessary; and
- Develops a collaborative working relationship with other divisions within DFS.

Preferred Qualifications

- A bachelor degree or higher (JD preferred) and at least 10 years of experience working in life insurance regulation.
- At least five years of experience working for a company in the life insurance sector.
- Professional qualifications as risk manager, underwriter, claims specialist or legal officer.
- General familiarity with insurance regulation and New York Insurance Law.
- Superior written and oral communication skills.
- Strong analytical skills.
- Strong project management skills, including experience managing many time-sensitive, complex projects simultaneously.
- Demonstrated ability to manage human capital and other resources to support short- and long-term priorities.

Appointment method:

This is an appointment to a position in the exempt jurisdictional class. As such, the incumbent of this position would serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Department of Financial Services is required to provide reasonable accommodation for known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified applicant with a disability if an accommodation would enable the applicant to perform the essential functions of the job. If the accommodation would constitute an undue hardship on the operations of the agency, the agency is not required to provide it.

All people with disabilities are encouraged to apply to all jobs for which they meet the minimum qualifications.

Pursuant to Executive Order 161, no State entity, as defined by the Executive Order, is permitted to ask, or mandate, in any form, that an applicant for employment provide his or her current compensation, or any prior compensation history, until such time as the applicant is extended a conditional offer of employment with compensation. If such information has been requested from you before such time, please contact the Office of Employee Relations at (518) 473-3130 or via email at response@oer.ny.gov.
