The New York Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, more transparent and resilient financial system that benefits New Yorkers and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation, and operational excellence, DFS is responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health and stability of the financial entities we regulate; and driving economic growth through responsible innovation.

Under the direction of the Superintendent for the Department of Financial Services (DFS), the Executive Deputy Superintendent for the Consumer Protection and Financial Enforcement Division (CPFED) oversees the following Business Units: Enforcement, the Consumer Examination Unit, the Consumer Assistance Unit, the Holocaust Claims Processing Office, the Criminal Investigations Bureau, and the Frauds Bureau.

Duties will include, but not be limited to, the following:

- Manages a large team with a diverse set of responsibilities across consumer assistance, fraud investigations, Holocaust claims, and enforcement, among others;
- Oversees, directs, and manages financial industry investigations, fraud, and enforcement matters;
- Guides the Department's oversight for protecting and educating consumers and fighting consumer fraud;
- Develops investigative leads and intelligence to enforce laws;
- Coordinates with other Department senior staff and external law enforcement agencies;
- Develops supervisory, regulatory and enforcement financial crimes policy;
- Advises the Superintendent on financial crimes policy matters;
- Drafts relevant legislation, rules, regulations, and policies and procedures for the Department;
- Works with the Superintendent and Executive staff on policy matters of importance to the regulation of financial services industries;
- Facilitates the restitution of material losses on behalf of Holocaust victims, including bank accounts, insurance policies, and works of art; and
- Develops and executes plans to coordinate implementation of new procedures and processes for CPFED.

Preferred Qualifications

- Juris Doctorate.
- At least ten years of experience working on investigations and litigation in the financial services industry.
- At least five years of managerial supervision.

Appointment method:

This is an appointment to a position in the exempt jurisdictional class. As such, the incumbent of this position would serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Department of Financial Services is required to provide reasonable accommodation for known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified applicant with a disability if an accommodation would enable the applicant to perform the essential functions of the job. If the accommodation would constitute an undue hardship on the operations of the agency, the agency is not required to provide it.

All people with disabilities are encouraged to apply to all jobs for which they meet the minimum qualifications.

Pursuant to Executive Order 161, no State entity, as defined by the Executive Order, is permitted to ask, or mandate, in any form, that an applicant for employment provide his or her current compensation, or any prior compensation history, until such time as the applicant is extended a conditional offer of employment with compensation. If such information has been requested from you before such time, please contact the Office of Employee Relations at (518) 473-3130 or via email at response@oer.ny.gov.
